

Farewell Symposium

'Nutritional sciences in transition'

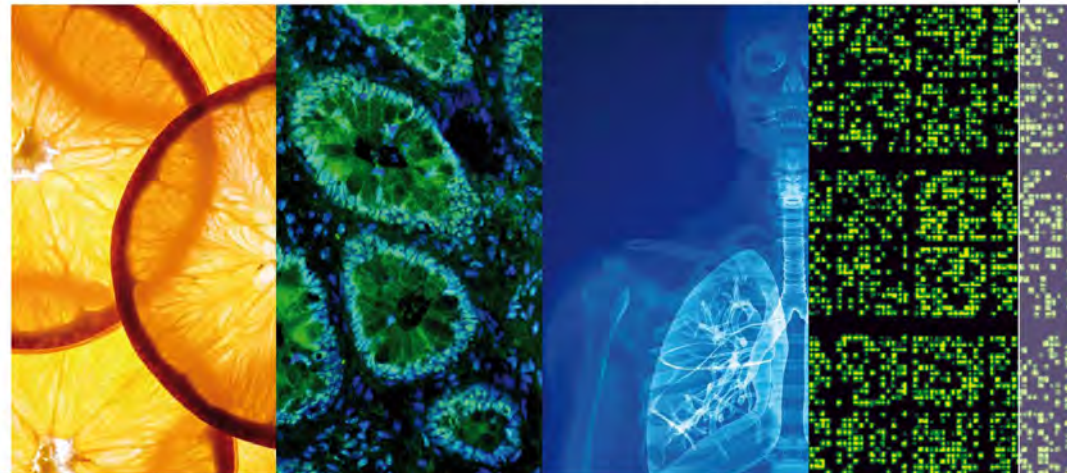

Maastricht June 6th 2014

at the occasion of the retirement of Prof. Wim H.M. Saris

Programme

- 09.45 Informal gathering
- 10.15 Opening by Prof. A. Schols, Scientific Director NUTRIM
- 10.30 Prof. I. Macdonald
'Nutritional sciences, food industry and the media - a changing scene'
- 11.15 Prof. R. Mattes
'Tackling the obesity epidemic. Can nutritional sciences make a difference?'
- 12.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Prof. D. Kromhout
'What has the nutritional epidemiology brought us in the past decades?'
- 14.45 Prof. H. Daniel
'Is there a future for personalised nutrition?'
- 15.30 Break
- 16.00 Farewell lecture by Prof. W. Saris 'Something to chew on'
- 16.45 Closing ceremony followed by reception

www.maastrichtuniversity.nl/nutrim

Farewell Symposium

'Nutritional sciences in transition'

Maastricht June 6th 2014

at the occasion of the retirement of Prof. Wim H.M. Saris

Venue: Aula Maastricht University, Minderbroedersberg 4-6

Time: 09:45 – 19:00 h

Registration at www.mintonline.org

Deadline: 15 May 2014

Faculty

Prof. Marleen van Baak, Maastricht University, Department of Human Biology, chair
Prof. Ellen Blaak, Maastricht University, Department of Human Biology, chair
Prof. Hannelore Daniel, Technische Universität, Munich, Germany
Prof. Daan Kromhout, Wageningen University, The Netherlands
Prof. Ian Macdonald, University of Nottingham, UK
Prof. Richard Mattes, Purdue University, USA
Prof. Annemie Schols, Maastricht University, Scientific Director NUTRIM

www.maastrichtuniversity.nl/nutrim